

Prince Edward State Park

(FOR NEGROES)

Prince Edward Park has a modern bathhouse, clean white sand beach and an ideal bathing and swimming area in the 30-acre lake.

Prince Edward State Park, exclusively for Negroes, is located in Prince Edward County, five miles south of Burkeville and one and one half miles off United States Route 360. Mailing address: Route 2, Box 90, Burkeville, Virginia.

The park is situated in the heart of Prince Edward State Forest, and the large lake, with its white sand beach surrounded by the dark green of the forest, creates a scene of peaceful beauty and quiet. Six cabins, completely equipped for housekeeping, overlook the lake. A modern bathhouse, sandy beach, diving tower, parking area, and the picnic ground with its tables, ovens and shelter, provide comfortable facilities for large and small groups. There is a restaurant, and also a small store from which supplies may be purchased. The thirty-acre lake is well stocked with bass, crappie and bream, and boats are for hire.

Modern housekeeping cabins (oval) are fully equipped and furnished. A restaurant serves meals in dining room indoor and on porch.
