The Virginia Department of Conservation and Recreation invites you to join in a month-long celebration of Virginia's Natural Area Preserve System.

This open house is one of several events being held statewide in October to honor Virginia's most significant natural places. The preserve system includes some of the rarest natural communities and rare species habitats in Virginia. There are now 59 dedicated natural areas totaling 49,531 acres protecting 356 unique, significant natural communities and rare plant and animal species.
