

Twin Lakes State Park is only an hour from the many historical, scenic and recreational attractions in Virginia's capital, Richmond. Nearby Farmville also has a number of points of interest. Take time to visit Bear Creek Lake State Park, Holliday Lake State Park and the site of the last major battle of the Civil War, Sailor's Creek Battlefield Historical State Park, all of which are close-at-hand.

Cedar Crest Conference Center is available for rent and is ideal for weddings, business retreats and family reunions.

Burkeville, five miles southeast of the park, and Farmville, 17 miles northwest of the park, provide such services as lodging, restaurants, entertainment, service stations, grocery and beverage supplies, fishing and hunting supplies and licenses, laundromats, medical assistance and worship services.

Campground Rules

- Camping is allowed only in designated campgrounds and only after following the proper check-in procedure.
- Registration for a state park campsite must be completed by a member of the camping party who is 18 years of age or older. This person accepts responsibility for the remainder of the camping party.
- Campsites are designed to be used by a maximum of six people or one family.
- One motor vehicle, in addition to the camping unit, is permitted per site. Only the camping unit listed on the campsite application is permitted. Additional vehicles not staying overnight will be charged a daily parking fee.

- State park campgrounds are intended for the use of the traveling public and not for extended or seasonal camping. The maximum camping stay per park is 14 days in any 30-day period.
- Check-out time is 3 p.m. No camping units, vehicles or personal property may be left or allowed to remain onsite after termination of the permitted camping period.
- Campers must inform park staff of the names of visitors expected to arrive at the campsite area. Visitors will not be admitted to campsites unless so identified. Visitors are permitted between 8 a.m. and 10 p.m.
- Pets are allowed in state park campgrounds. A fee will be charged per pet/night. All pets must be kept on a leash, not to exceed six feet, or in an enclosed area.
- The public use or display of alcoholic beverages is prohibited. Public intoxication and/or disorderly conduct will not be tolerated.
- Quiet hours are to be observed from 10 p.m. to 8 a.m.
- Fires must be confined to campgrills, campstoves or designated firerings.

Frequent visitors save money

Annual passes for parking and swimming offer the frequent visitor greater savings. Stop by the park office for details.

Virginia State Parks provide A Natural Legacy of outdoor activities and programs. They are an important part of DCR's efforts to promote a strong conservation ethic.
These efforts ensure that the best of Virginia's natural resources will be protected and available for future generations.
