There is a lot of pressure on me from upstream. I create Beaver Lake, but beavers did not build me.

You might think I made pizza, but I was used to make pots and mugs.

I am the only way to cross Swift Creek without getting your paws wet.

At roughly 145 feet tall, I am the tallest and most POPLAR tree on this trail.

When the park was built, I would alert the camp. Now I stand in remembrance.
