

WESTMORELAND STATE PARK

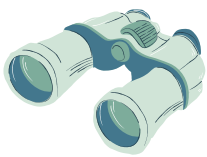

Enjoy a relaxing paddle on the Potomac River!

This paddle tour is designed to show you the ecosystem, wildlife, and views from the river as we look back to the shoreline of Westmoreland State Park. This tour provides excellent views and wildlife sighting opportunities to include, the HorseHead Cliffs (from a safe distance), stratigraphy of the Cliffs, erosion and water as a true natural force, a brief fossil hunting on fossil beach, and significant birdwatching opportunities to include special and unscheduled appearances by Bald Eagles, Osprey, Great Blue Herons, and more!

Guests should meet their kayak tour guide at the day-use beach and boathouse area, located to the left of the first stop sign, follow the road all the way to the bottom where you'll see a large parking lot, picnic tables, and the river.

All equipment is provided however participants should wear closed-toed shoes. All children participating should be over 35lbs. Participants should wear a hat, sunscreen, bug spray, and bring water and snacks with them. This paddle begins at the scheduled time and can run for roughly 3 hours or less. This program only has 5 spots.

There is a $25 program fee per person.
